—There will be a meeting of the County Pension Board at 12 o'clock on the first Monday in April in the court house.

—Caldwell & Beaty, insurance and commission agents, have moved their office from Washington street to the room formerly occupied by Simpson & Cathcart.
—J. J. Ober for sale a poison for the destruction of bugs, ants, roaches, and all other insects. This poison will exterminate these troublesome insects and will save much annoyance. Give it a trial.
—Spring is long in coming. Usually at this time the trees are in full foliage and flowers are abundant, but things still have a wintry look, the trees are just beginning to bud, and there is scarcely a flower to be seen.
—The pupils of the South Carolina College for Women are to be given Easter holiday. The young ladies from Winnsboro who are attending this college will come home Thursday afternoon and remain until Monday.
—A meeting of all who are to take part in the play that is to be presented here was held on Friday night. The meeting was held for the purpose of deciding upon what play should be selected and to make other arrangements.
—Camp Bookier, one of the Richland camps, has selected Miss Besie Bookier as their sponsor at the reunion in Charleston. Miss Bookier is from Fairfield and her friends will be pleased to know of the honor that has been conferred upon her.
—Mr. C. M. Chandler is selling silver-plated ware at cost. Forks, tablespoons and other articles of plated ware he will sell at cost, and anyone in need of silver ware would do well to give him a call. See his ad for further particulars.
—The Standard Oil Company, which recently put up a large oil tank here, now has a handsome delivery wagon in use here, and the oil is delivered to their customers. The wagon also carries oil to Ridgeway, White Oak and other places in the country.
—The 400 young ladies of Wintrop College will celebrate the birthday of Robert Wintrop, which is the 12th of May, by attending the reunion in Charleston. This will be a most delightful outing for the girls, and will be a day long remembered by them all.
—Information as to the rates of board and lodging in Charleston at the time of the reunion has been officially given out, and all who expect to be present at the reunion are urged to write at once and secure board, for by doing so in advance it will save the committee in charge much trouble.
—The passenger depot is fast nearing completion, and the days of the old depot are numbered. The roof of the new building is covered with slate, and although the situation does not show the building off, yet it is very pretty and convenient and adds greatly to the appearance of that part of town.
—The Clemson College Chronicle for March contains two articles by Mr. Edgar M. Matthews. One of these is the speech made by Mr. Matthews at an oratorical contest recently held, and the speech was highly spoken of by the judges. Mr. Matthews writes well and the articles reflect great credit upon him.
—Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Daisy Wright, of Columbia, to Mr. J. H. Robinson, of Lexington. The wedding is to take place on Thursday, March 30th. Miss Wright is known here, having visited Miss Esther Jennings, and is pleasantly remembered by all who met her.
—On Tuesday afternoon, Rebecca, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Walker, met with a painful accident. She was playing on the steps of Judge O. W. Buchanan's house and fell off breaking her left arm. Dr. Samuel Lindsay was called in and set the arm. Both bones were broken just above the wrist.
—We call the attention of the public to the advertisement of J. D. McCauley & Co. For years Mr. McCauley has been in the grocery business and always has on hand a complete stock of the best and most up-to-date groceries, and gives his customers perfect satisfaction. His prices are low and he can always be relied on to serve him a trial.
—The Second South Carolina Regiment has returned from Cuba and is encamped in Georgia. The mustering out of this regiment was most composed it, and they were jubilant at the prospect of returning to South Carolina. The life in Cuba evidently was not as pleasant as some of the men expected it to be.

—At an antislavery meeting given in Chester by the camp of the Confederate veterans, a most interesting program was carried out. One of the most interesting features of the evening was the presentation of the flag by Miss May Davidson to the sponsor for the camp. Miss Davidson made a very graceful little speech to which the sponsor, Miss McFadden, responded very prettily.

—The great musical festival given every spring at Converse College will take place during the latter part of April this year instead of in May. The reason of the change is that if it were given at the usual time it would conflict with the Confederate reunion in Charleston. This festival is attended by music-lovers from all over the State and is the greatest event in the year for the Spartanburg people. This spring the concert will be given in the great auditorium recently built. It is probable that several people from Winnsboro will attend the festival.

—The people of the A. R. P. Church are looking forward with great pleasure to the reunion, which meets in the A. R. P. Church of this place early in April. A number of ministers and lay delegates will be present and, although the congregation of the A. R. P. Church is a large one, it is probable that their friends of other denominations will open their houses and assist them in entertaining the visitors. The meeting will doubtless be very interesting and will be well attended by the members of all of the churches. The delegates to presbytery will be given a hearty welcome and we feel sure that on this occasion Winnsboro will sustain her reputation for great hospitality.

In the safe were $110 worth of stamps and about $120 in money, and the money order book, which was also taken. The burglars have not yet been caught, but the government will no doubt use every effort to bring the offenders to justice and make them pay the penalty.

CAPTURED A WHEEL.
A few days ago Chief of Police Gilbert had a long chase after a thief. The Columbia police had telegraphed to Chief Gilbert to look out for a negro who had stolen a bicycle in Columbia and was coming this way. Mr. Gilbert made inquiries and found that the negro had already passed through town. Getting on a horse Mr. Gilbert started in pursuit and saw the negro peddling away from him as fast as he could. The negro, with Mr. Gilbert close behind him, made a good run until finally, when Mr. Gilbert caught up with him, the negro left the wheel and took to the woods and escaped. Mr. Gilbert secured the wheel, which repaid him somewhat for the race, but the negro is still at liberty.

A meeting was held by the ladies on Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist Church. The object of the meeting was to organize a Home Missionary Society for work among the factory operatives and their families; and to relieve any suffering and destitute person. The meeting on Wednesday was simply to organize the society, and the following officers were appointed:

President, Miss Francis Craig; vice-presidents, Mrs. John J. Craig, Mrs. Hattie McMaster, Mrs. W. D. Douglas, Miss Elizabeth W. Currier; secretary, Miss Charlotte Allison; treasurer, Miss Mattie Harris. The society will hold its meetings once every month, and the next meeting will be held on the first Tuesday in April.

Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at McMaster Co.'s drug store.

A SUSPECTED MAD DOG KILLED.

On Wednesday afternoon a dog supposed to be mad caused some alarm and considerable excitement on Main street. When the dog appeared several men started in hot pursuit, bent upon ending the life of the dog. The crowd grew rapidly and weapons of all kinds from a pistol to an airgun were brought out. Several shots were fired at the terrified animal without effect, until finally he took refuge under a small bridge on Main street, and could not be gotten out. He then made his way into a more secure hiding place and it was quite a while before the poor beast was discovered and shot. Many people think that the dog was not mad and that the whole town was chasing a dog that was perfectly harmless and only frightened by the uproar it caused. However, if there was any doubt, the safest plan was to kill him, as it is too dangerous a matter to run any risks about.

SUMMER HOMES' FOLDER, 1899.

Mr. W. A. Turk, general passenger agent of the Southern Railway, is collecting information for Summer Homes' Folder for the ensuing summer, giving the names of proprietors, postoffice addresses, at or near what station, conveyance used, number of guests, terms per day, week and month. This information will be printed in an attractive form a large edition published and distributed by the various agents of this immense system throughout all sections of the country. Persons contemplating taking boarders for the ensuing summer are requested to apply to the nearest railroad agent for blank to be filled out giving the above information, and forward at once to W. A. Turk, general passenger agent, Washington, D. C., so that it may reach him not later than April 1st.

AN APPEAL.

The Confederate reunion will occur on the 10th of May next in Charleston. Great preparations are being made and expense incurred to entertain the numerous visitors expected. The Legislature, by resolution, extended the hospitalities of the whole State to the visitors, and it is therefore a State affair. Charleston should not be allowed to bear all the expense and has promised the cost with the several counties. Our part being $150, of this amount we have on hand about $40, mostly contributed by a half dozen men. I earnestly call on Confederate soldiers, sympathizers and our noble women to aid in raising the additional amount needed, so the county can appear and be on a par with the other counties now contributing all over the State.

of Executive Committee.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE.

Rev. J. Knox Montgomery, of Cincinnati, Ohio, lectured in the A. R. P. Church on Monday night upon the subject, "Help Somebody," and a large audience was present to hear him. The lecturer held the undivided attention of his hearers from the beginning of the lecture to the end, and all were sorry when the lecture came to a close. Mr. Montgomery impressed upon his hearers the fact that it is the duty of every person to help others, and told of many instances where the lives of men and women were steeped in sin had been completely changed by the kindness of some person. In illustrating his points the lecturer told most interesting anecdotes, some of them amusing in the extreme and others full of pathos.

After the lecture, Mr. Montgomery, who has a fine voice, sang several songs, and thus closed a most enjoyable evening.

ASKECH OF COL. J. E. DAVIS.

The retiring colonel of Richland regiment is a splendid old gentleman, Col. Jno. B. Davis of Killians. Being 72 years of age and quite infirm, he was compelled to give up the office, although he loves the regiment well and will still follow it allegiance.

At the outbreak of the war between the States he was elected captain of Company I, First regiment South Carolina volunteers, Col. Gregg. This regiment enlisted for six months, State service, and remained around Charleston until the fall of Sumter and then went to Virginia to serve on the balance of the six months. At the end of that time the regiment was disbanded. Capt. Davis then, in three weeks, raised a company for the Fifteenth South Carolina, Col. DeSausure, assigned to Drayton's brigade. This brigade was engaged at Boonville and Sharpshooter under Gen. Drayton, and was then transferred to Kershaw's brigade. Pickett's charge was no more glorious than that of Kershaw at Snodgrass Hill, Chickamauga. In that battle Capt. Davis distinguished himself for gallantry. Again at Knoxville his bravery was conspicuous, and Gen. Kershaw made him colonel of the regiment, promoting him over the lieutenant colonel and major, "for valor and skill on the battlefield."

Col. Davis is a West Pointer, and the training added efficiency to his gallantry and courage. But the infirmity of years has come upon him, and he thought it best to leave the command of the regiment of survivors to younger men.—The State.

WOMEN IN TROUBLE.

The Approach of Menstruation is the Occasion of Much Anxiety to All.

Every woman dreads the ordeal through which she must pass in becoming a mother. The pain and suffering which is in store for her is a source of constant anxiety, fear and dread, to say nothing of the danger which the coming incident entails. The joyous anticipations with which she looks forward to baby's coming gives way to an indescribable dread of the ordeal when she fully realizes the critical and trying event which will soon approach and have to be endured.

Women should hail with delight a remedy which insures to them immunity from the pain, suffering and danger incident to child-bearing. Such a remedy is now offered, and women need not fear longer the hour of childbirth. "Mother's Friend" is a scientific liniment—and it used before confinement, gently and surely prepares the body for the great requirements and changes it is undergoing, insures safety to both mother and child, and takes her through the ordeal with comparative ease and comfort. This wonderful remedy is praised by every woman who has used it.

Why women are so interested in "Mother's Friend?" This wonderful remedy has been tested and its priceless value proven by the experience of thousands of happy mothers who had endured the most critical and painful period of woman's life—the approach and culmination of menstruation.

It has won their everlasting praise for it gave them help and hope in their most trying hour and when most needed. Every woman may some day need "Mother's Friend." The little book, "Before Baby is Born," tells all about it, and when it should be used, will prove of great interest and benefit to all expectant mothers, and will be sent free to any address upon application to the Bradford Regulator Company, Atlanta, Ga.

RIDGEWAY NEWS.

We are to have a new brick school house. The building, it is said, will cost about three thousand dollars, and will be erected upon the Davis lot. The town is to be congratulated in securing such a desirable lot for the new building. This is simply in keeping with the constant growth of our progressive town.

The new bank is doing a good business, and will likely erect a new brick building for their business at an early day.

Messrs. English Rembert and Chevis Booser returned from Cuba on Friday at. They were in the 2nd S. C. Regiment.

Dr. J. W. Team, president of the Hunters' Union, will likely issue an order dissolving the union April 1st as the law prohibits hunting after that date. The union consists of the following active members: Dr. J. W. Team, Capt. W. J. Johnston, C. P. Team, J. R. Bolick, Chas. Rabb, J. A. DePortes, Jr., H. W. DePortes, Jr., Dr. A. L. Ott, J. B. Boyd, and J. S. Edmunds. The association has some of the finest marksmen in the State.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. W. Barwell Hogan, who has been quite ill, is rapidly improving.

Magistrate Lemaster had quite an interesting case before him on Saturday. A colored man was charged by one of his colored lady friends with using language "unbecoming a gentleman" in her presence. It so shocked her sense of modesty that she resorted to the law to discipline the erring brother. Attorney Smart appeared for the State and Attorney L. L. Bolick for the defendant. After able arguments by counsel on both sides the defendant was found not guilty; but he will doubtless be more guarded in his remarks when in the presence of ladies.

The old veterans are preparing to send a big delegation to Charleston in May. It is gratifying to see so much interest manifested by the surviving heroes of the "Lost Cause" in keeping up their organization.
